

The world was changing before our eyes
But we hardly seemed too concerned;
Egypt and Israel fought a 6 day war,
At our house ... upset, if our toast burned.

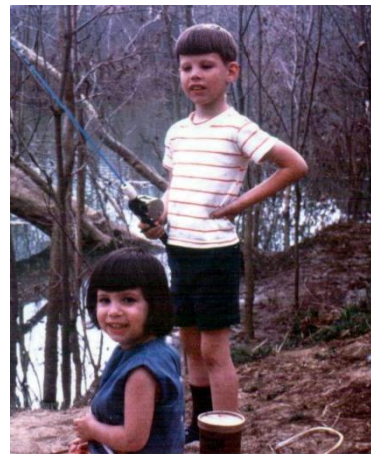

Our office won the INA Diamond Award,
which meant some bonus in the old paycheck;
to the silly looking Plymouth we said bye-bye,
went for a Ford Fairlane ... by heck!

Dressed the children up for Easter,
my-my they certainly looked nice;
Never walked in an Easter parade,
But at church folks might have smiled ... twice!

Our kindergarten graduate was handsome
In his beautiful white cap and gown;
But his momma surely told him,
Can't wear it ... if you let it drag on the ground!

The summer brought a fine vacation
Thanks to our Valdosta babysitting crew;
Mae and I jumped in that new car
And off to New Orleans we flew!

The gulf shore was not unfamiliar,
But the sights in the city were ... great;
Antoine's and The Court-of-Two Sisters,
Just two wonderful places we ate!

Meanwhile back on the farm
Our kids went fishing one day,
But when they heard something rattle ...
They got out of there right away!

Russ was ready for 1st grade
His sister not grown up enough yet;
She still liked the idea of playing...
that's a football ... plus her dolls ... you bet!

Mae and I did not go out often,
What with babysitters in short supply;
But if we took them to their grandparents ...
A MAN FOR ALL SEASONS we could try!
